

Apple claim

7 messages

Tue, May 11, 2010 at 3:36 PM

Per our discussion.

2 attachments

Tue, May 11, 2010 at 4:04 PM

Hi

I got the attachments and will review. Please send me a copy of what the final agreement would look like without the amounts entered. There is no point to continue and waste time if we do not have common ground in the end.

On Tue, May 11, 2010 at 3:36 PM, wrote:
Per our discussion.

Tue, May 11, 2010 at 7:33 PM

Hi Again

Up to your investigation to date, is there anything I need to know to tell my doctors?

Wed, May 12, 2010 at 9:45 AM

Hello

[REDACTED]

Glad to see that you received what I sent. As to any final agreement, we are getting far ahead of ourselves here. We have a lot of ground to cover prior to attempting to resolve this matter. If an agreement is reached regarding resolution of the case we can address the settlement agreement at that time.

[REDACTED]

Senior Claims Consultant

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

---

[REDACTED]

Subject: Re: Apple claim

[REDACTED]

---

[REDACTED]

Wed, May 12, 2010 at 9:46 AM

[REDACTED]

Your doctor's office will be familiar with the request I will be making. There does not appear to be anything that needs to be done on your end in this regard at this time.

[REDACTED]

Senior Claims Consultant

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

---

[REDACTED]

Subject: Re: Apple claim

Hi Again [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

---

[REDACTED]

Wed, May 12, 2010 at 10:23 AM

Mr. [REDACTED]

I do not have time to handle this matter the way you are proposing. Apple has already disturbed my life long enough. If I request Mr. [REDACTED] medical records to see if he is making good decisions, so that maybe we can figure out what this is going to look in the end, you would agree that it would be pretty silly.

Mr [REDACTED] if you are unable to present me with a prototype of a settlement agreement without the agreed numbers, you will be unable to do it, even after I submit all my personal information to you. If this is the case I would advise you to hand this matter to Apple's General Council, [REDACTED] A personal friend, and attorney on [REDACTED] General Council, had advised me to send it to him directly anyway. I was hoping I could resolve this without attorneys. After the 25th of May, I will be communicating with Apple through my representatives. Your attorneys are welcome to call me directly until then.

If I do not speak to you again, thank you for your assistance to date.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

---

[REDACTED]

Wed, May 12, 2010 at 10:25 AM

